

Little Miami Wild & Scenic River

Lower Little Miami - Morrow downstream to Cincinnati

Little Miami CONSERVANCY

Wild & Scenic River Conservation Since 1967
www.littlemiami.org

The printing of this map was made possible in part by funds provided by :

118 Main Street in Milford
www.roadsriversandtrails.com
 (513) 248-7787

(513) 683-4611

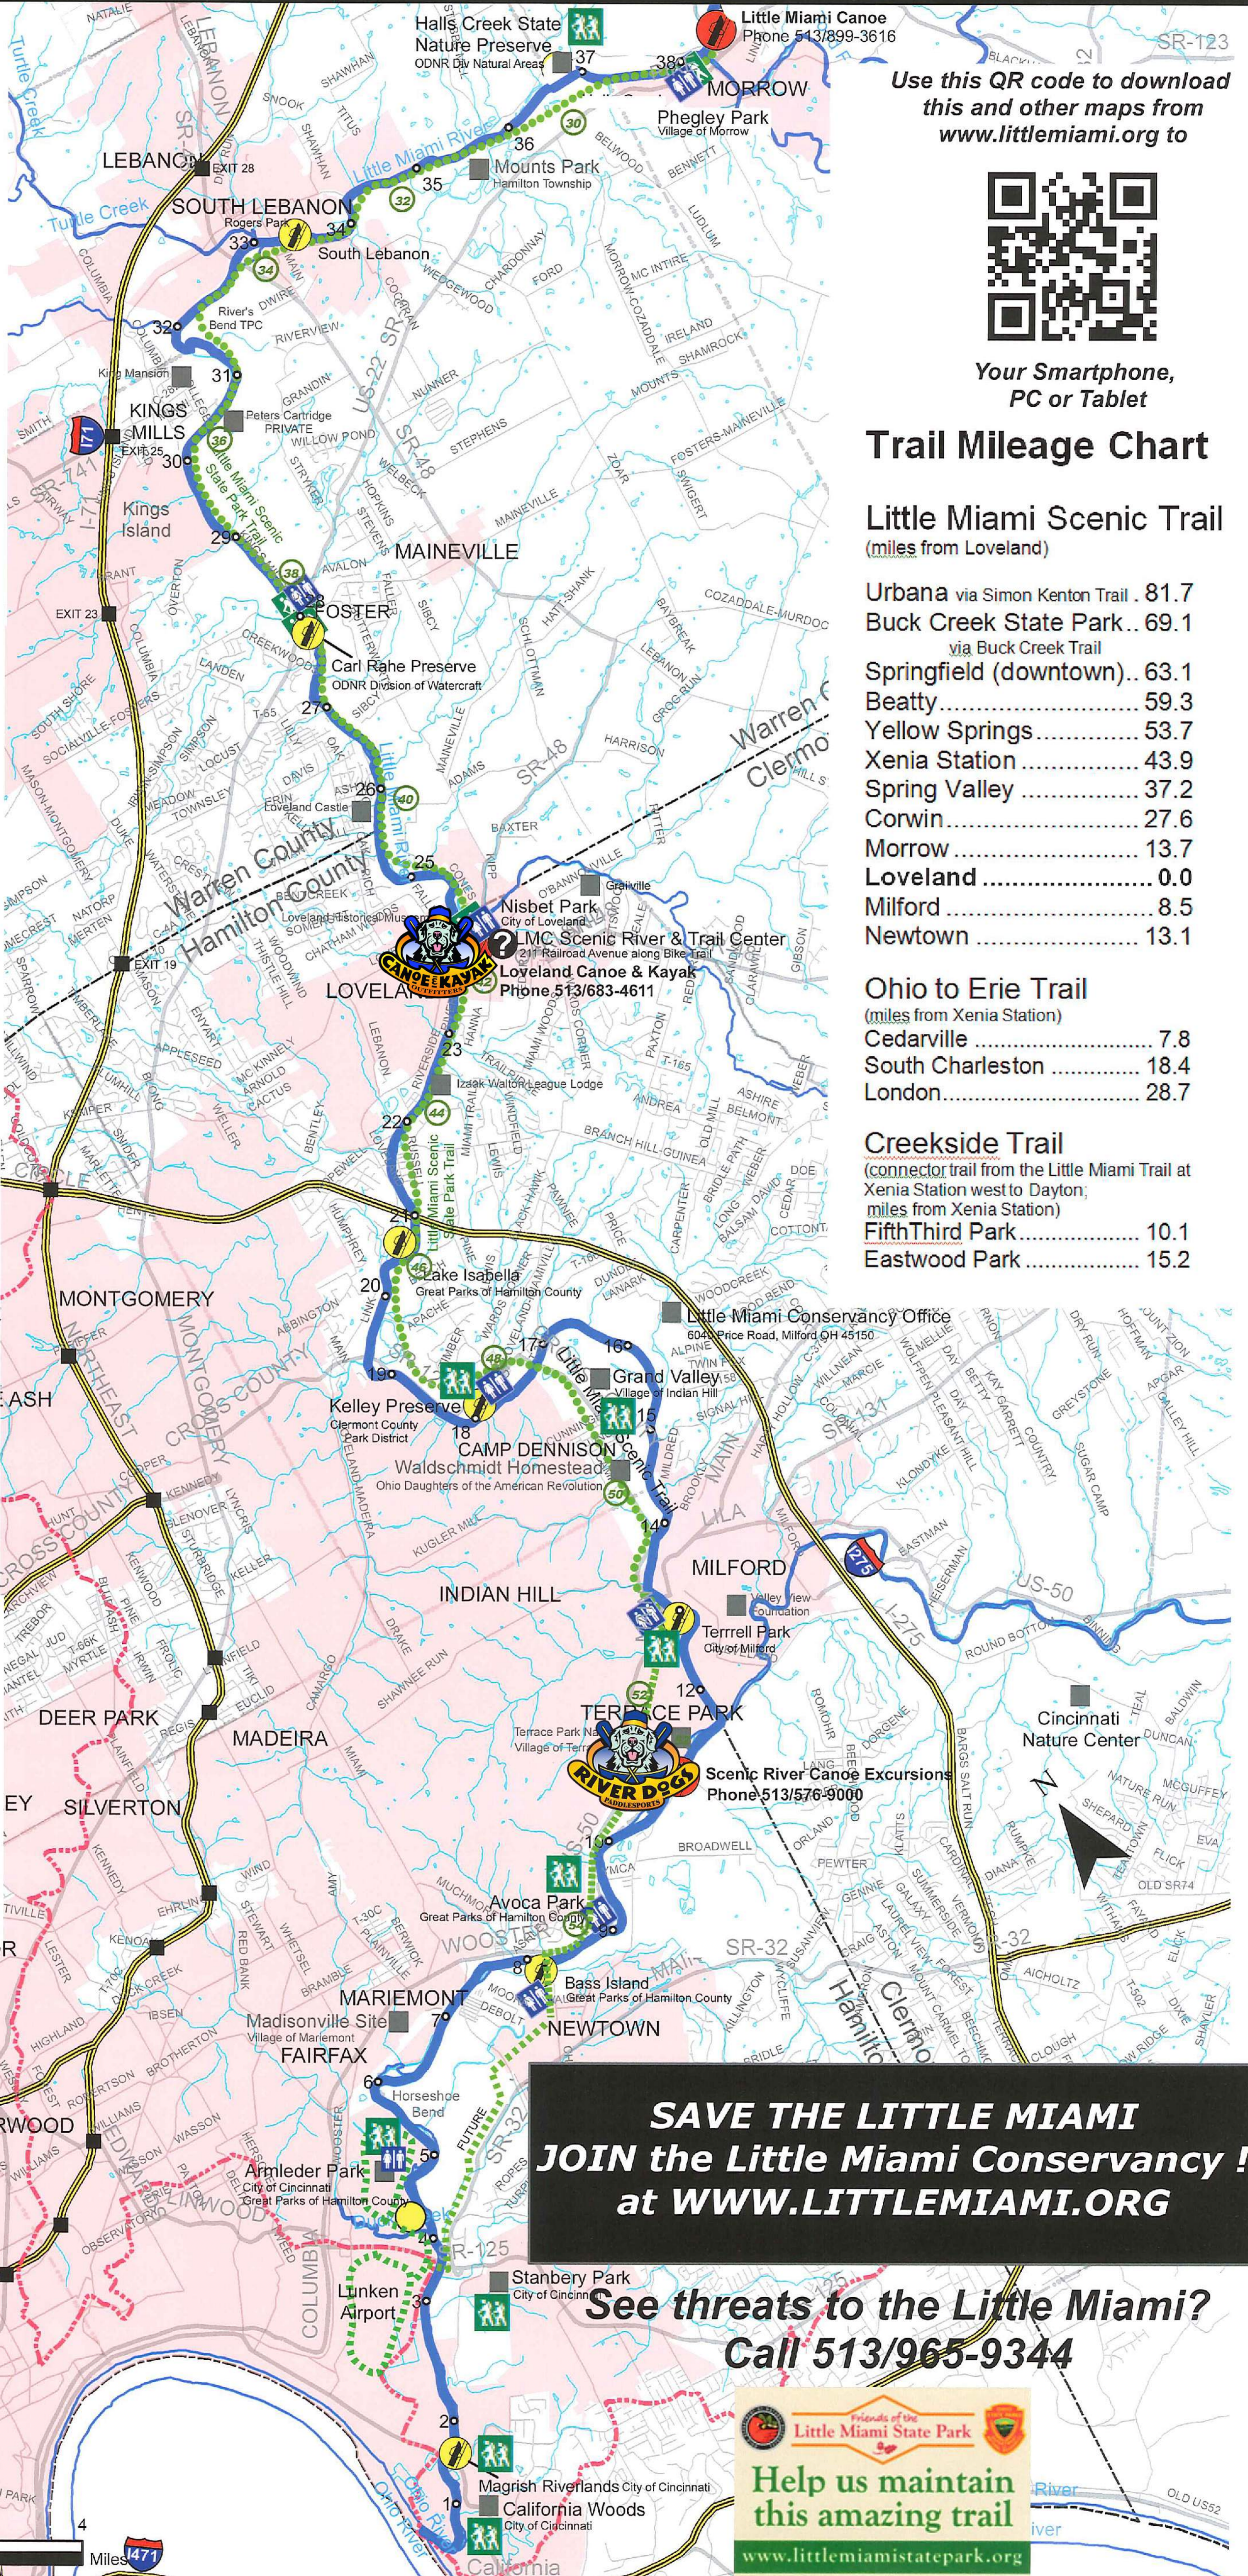

www.lovelandcanoe.com

- Canoe Liveries
- Public Canoe Access
- Hiking & Birding
- Bike Trails
- Restrooms (seasonal)
- Little Miami Watershed Boundary
- Little Miami Wild & Scenic River
- Major Streams
- Streams
- Counties
- Townships

Copyright 2014
 Little Miami Conservancy
 All Rights Reserved

Bike Trail Mile Markers are measured in miles from Xenia Station.

River Mile Markers are measured from the river's mouth near Lunken Airport east of Cincinnati.

Use this QR code to download this and other maps from www.littlemiami.org to

Your Smartphone, PC or Tablet

Trail Mileage Chart

Little Miami Scenic Trail (miles from Loveland)

Urbana via Simon Kenton Trail	81.7
Buck Creek State Park.. via Buck Creek Trail	69.1
Springfield (downtown)..	63.1
Beatty.....	59.3
Yellow Springs.....	53.7
Xenia Station.....	43.9
Spring Valley.....	37.2
Corwin.....	27.6
Morrow.....	13.7
Loveland.....	0.0
Milford.....	8.5
Newtown.....	13.1

Ohio to Erie Trail (miles from Xenia Station)

Cedarville.....	7.8
South Charleston.....	18.4
London.....	28.7

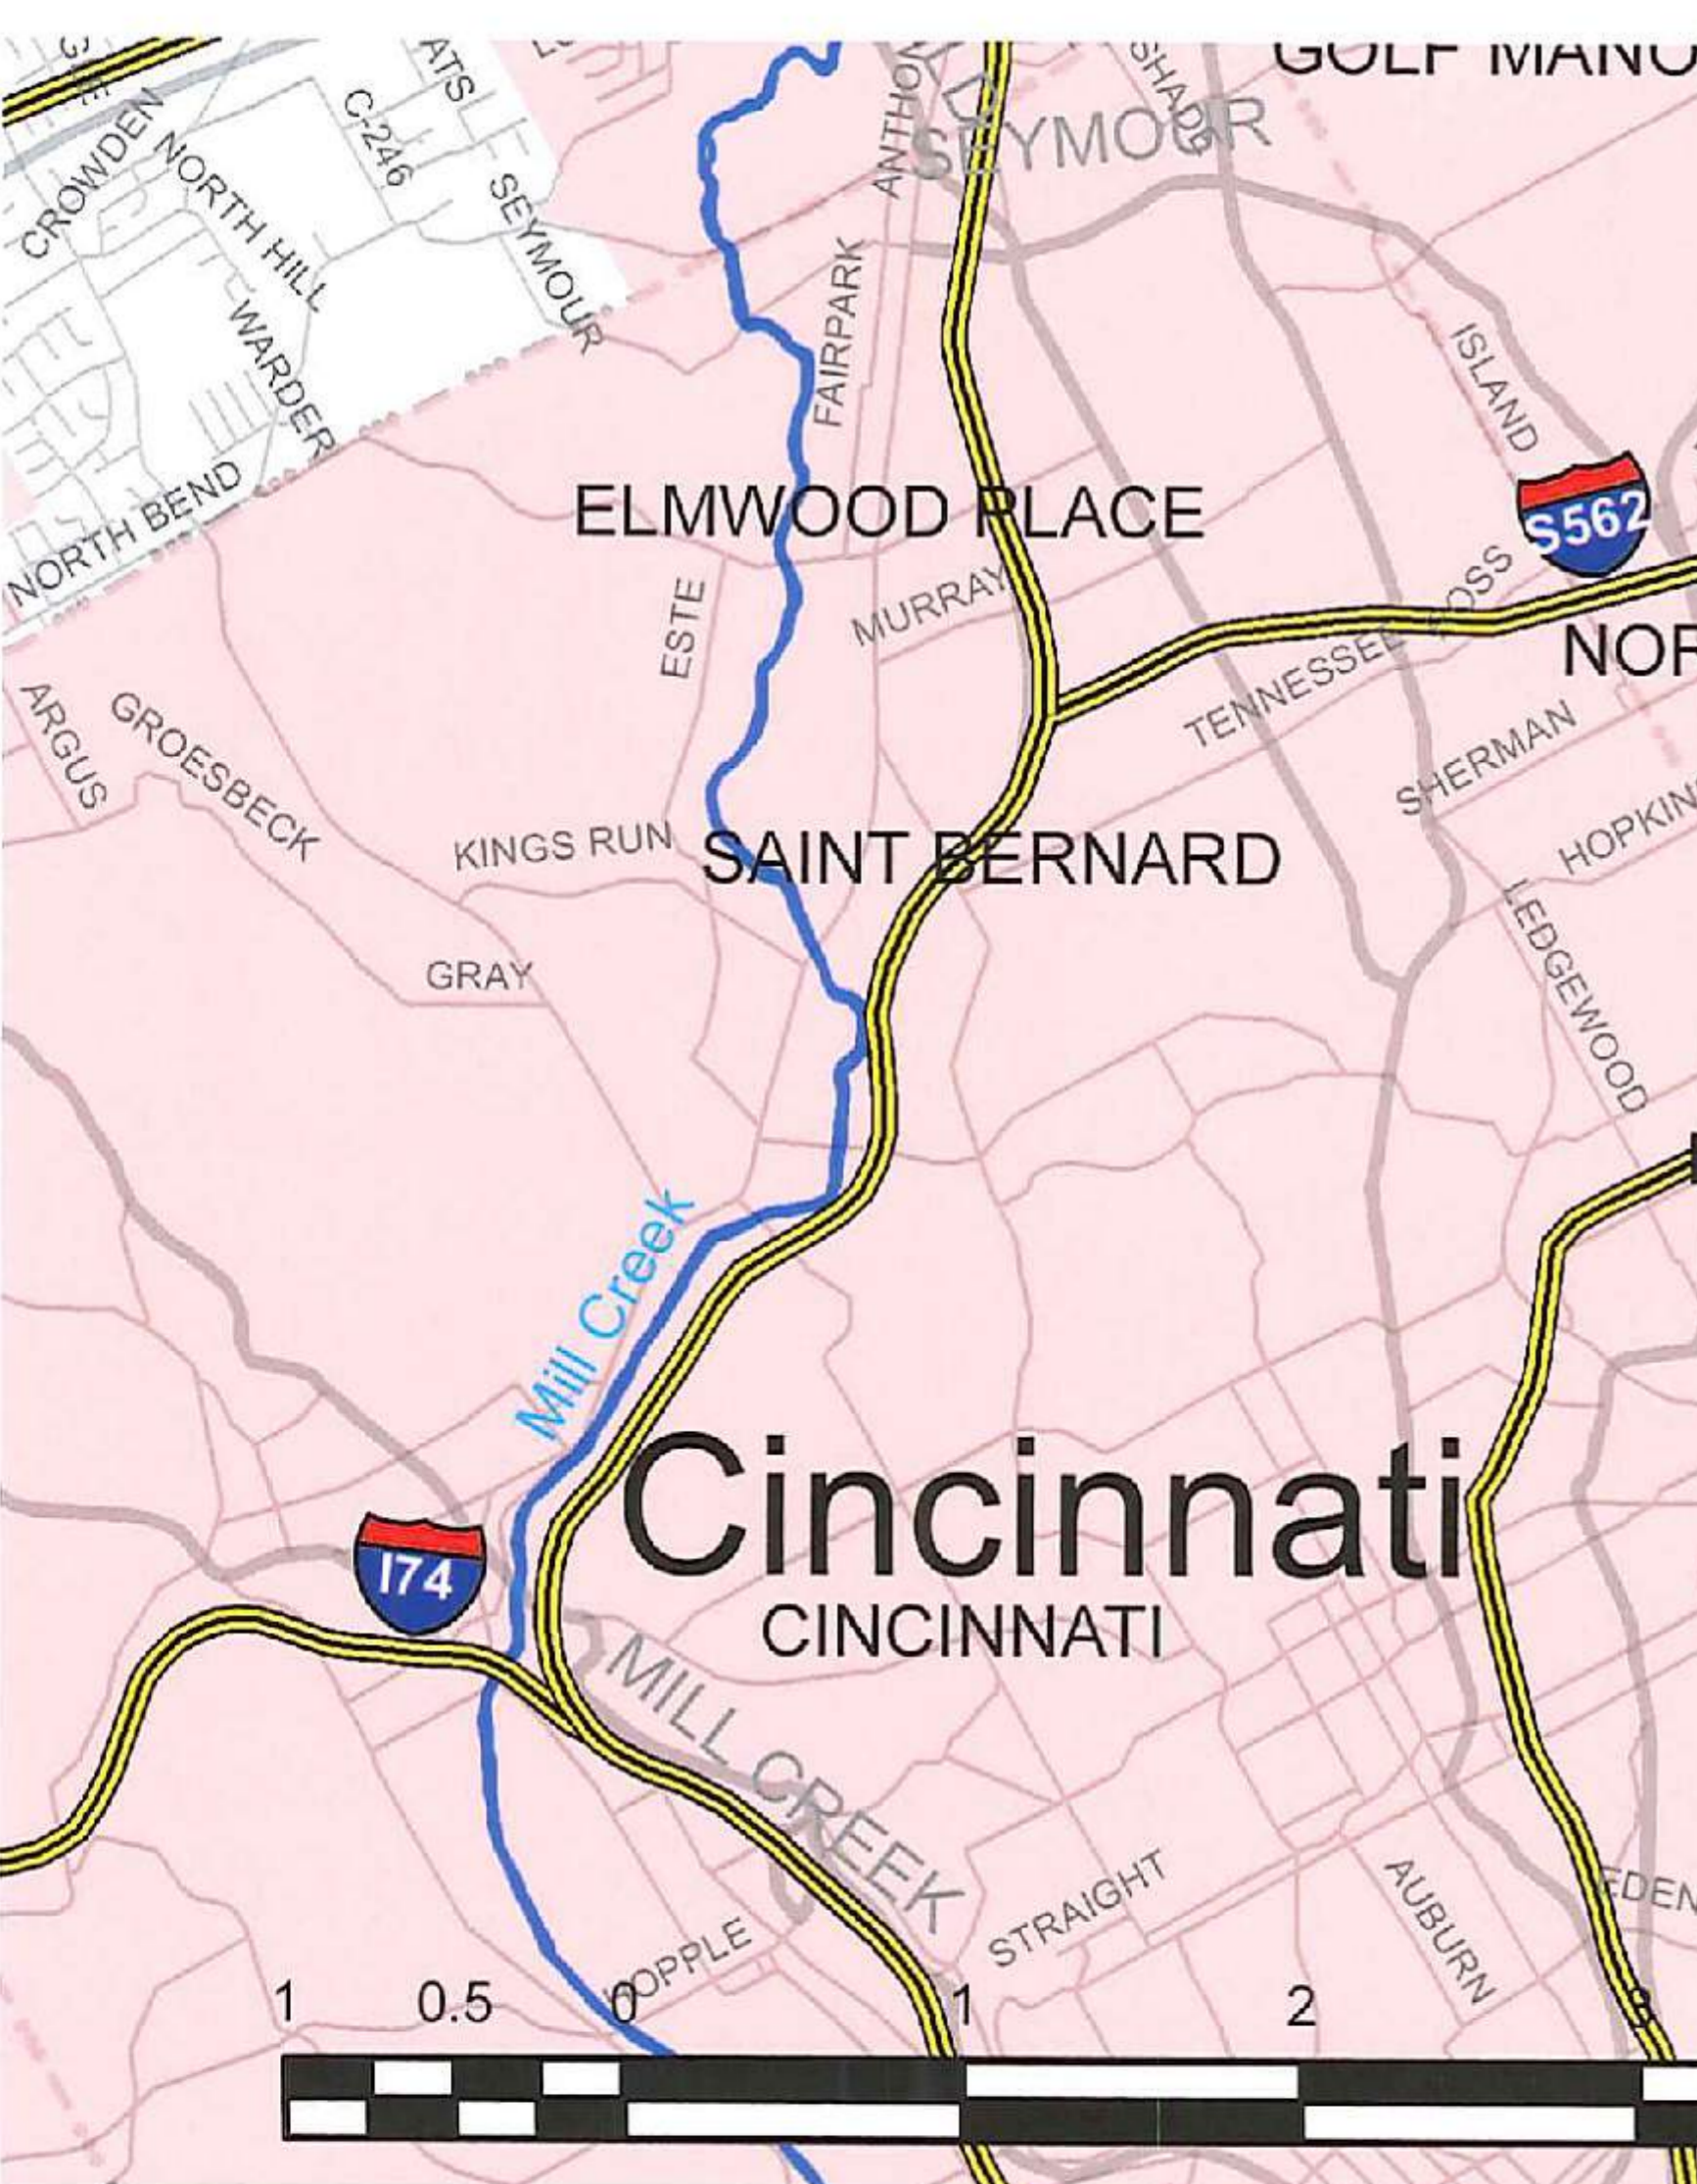

Creekside Trail (connector trail from the Little Miami Trail at Xenia Station west to Dayton; miles from Xenia Station)

FifthThird Park.....	10.1
Eastwood Park.....	15.2

SAVE THE LITTLE MIAMI
JOIN the Little Miami Conservancy !
at WWW.LITTLEMIAMI.ORG

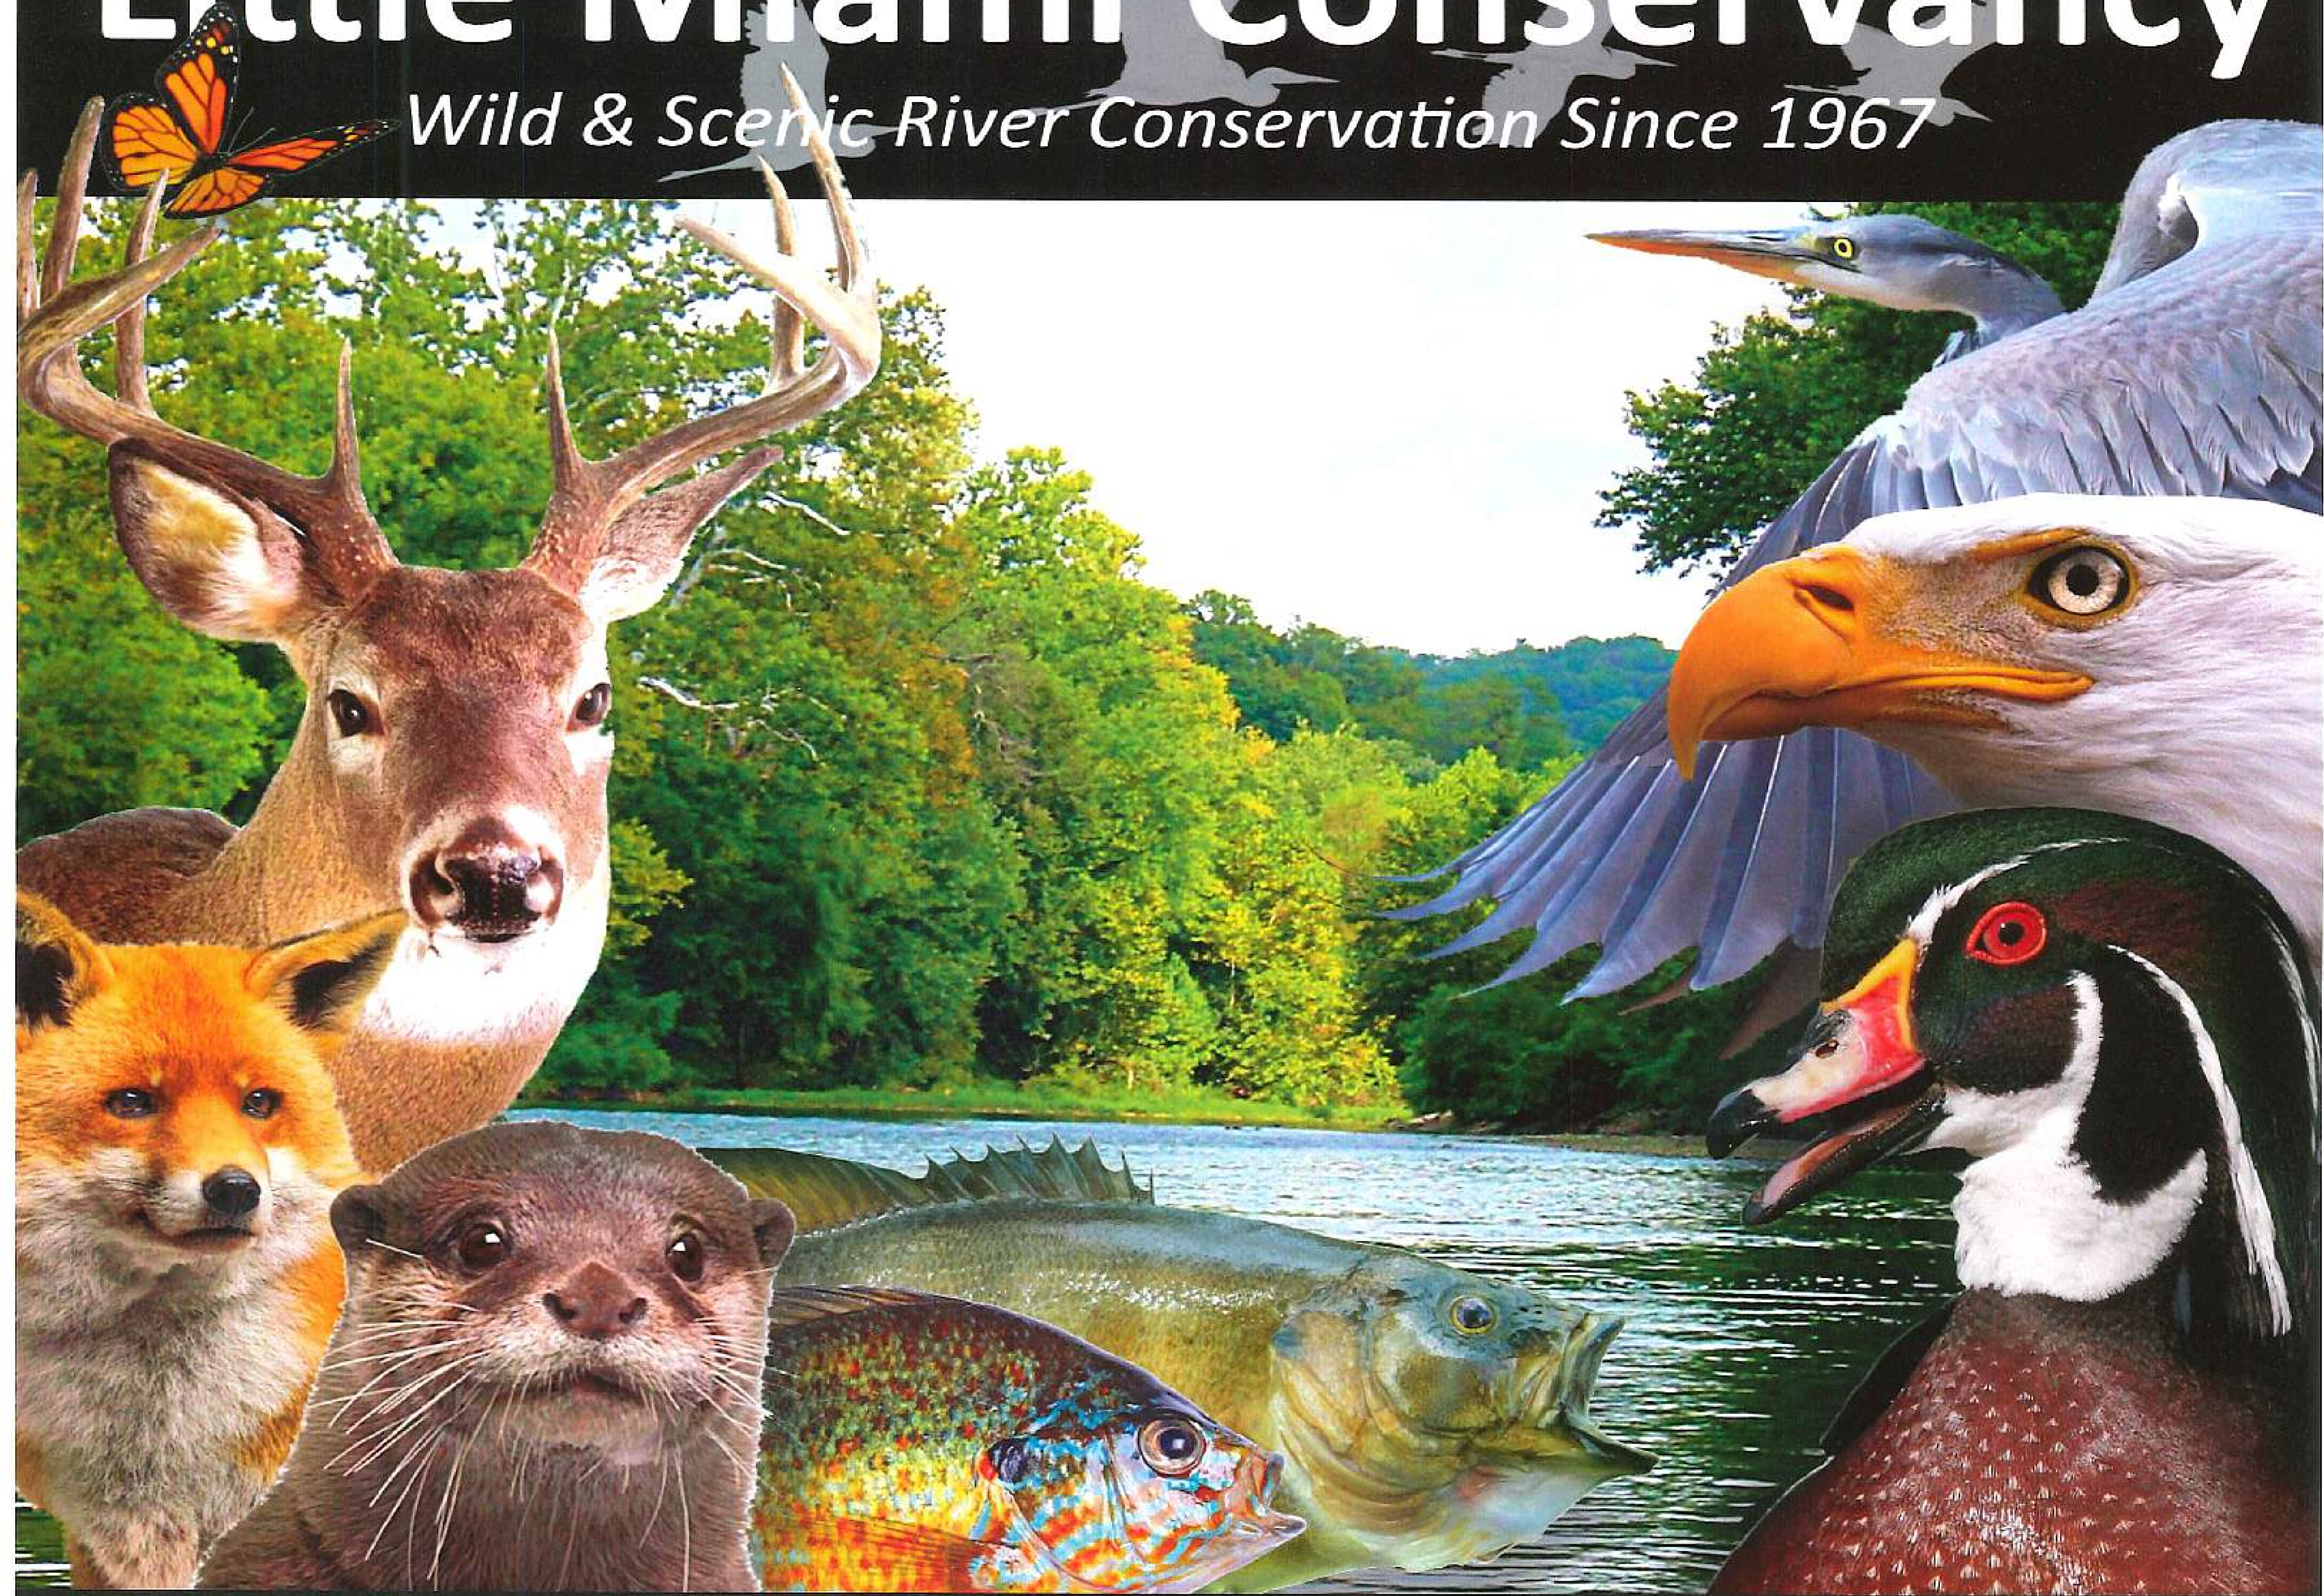

See threats to the Little Miami?
Call 513/965-9344

Help us maintain this amazing trail
www.littlemiamistatepark.org

Little Miami Conservancy

Wild & Scenic River Conservation Since 1967

See a threat to their Little Miami? Contact the Little Miami Conservancy at 513/965-9344

LMC Acquires and Cleans Up "Worst Eyesore on the Little Miami", Wildlife returns soon after

On March 28, 2013 LMC acquired title to a 1.4 acre parcel upstream from Morrow (photo above right) in Warren County. With half a dozen semi trailers, abandoned vehicles, plastic barrels, broken concrete, several sheds and a large building overhanging the river LMC had its work cut out for it in bringing this "diamond in the rough" back to "gem" status.

Thanks to over 40 volunteers (see photo below) and an LMI contractor the 600 feet of riverfront is returning to a natural riverfront forest worthy of a National Wild & Scenic River and wildlife is already returning!

Thanks also to the Warren County Prosecutor's office, County Building Department and Washington Township.

BEFORE LMC CLEAN UP

AFTER LMC CLEAN UP

A doe and her speckled fawn visited the new LMC "gem" after the clean up

Sustaining the River's Future depends on you "Leaving Your Legacy, Naturally!"

As the Little Miami Conservancy celebrates its 47th anniversary we look back over the decades of dedication by thousands of area citizens to protecting and restoring the river we all love. The challenge ahead is to sustain this great work into the coming decades by making a tax-deductible gift to LMC that will assure that this great dream is kept alive and well for future generations.

Please have a conversation with your family and financial advisor and see how a bequest or other donation to LMC can help expand the LMC Endowment Fund and sustain our conservation efforts for years to come.

KEEP IT QUIET Naturally!

Respect Wildlife, landowners and fellow outdoor visitors by keeping the Little Miami a place of unique quiet and natural solitude. AVOID YELLING and LOUD NOISES THANK YOU!

2013 Lower Little Miami Clean Sweep A Success!

Another 50 cubic yards of trash were swept from the riverbanks in 2013 including 250 tires. Many thanks to the teams from Rempke Markets, PSARA, Pepper Construction, HBFuller and CH2M Hill for helping restore the natural splendor of the Little Miami!

Clean Sweep 2014 Needs You & Friends

Email your name, team size and interest in dates in August and September 2014 to - cleansweep@littlemiami.org .

You make a difference!

at littlemiami.org

