Beware of Scam Calls, texts & Fake House Callers. Scam calls and messages haven't gone away - they are just getting more sophisticated. Banks, Tax office, HSE, Revenue, Garda, Amazon, etc. WILL NOT text you or call you and ask you for any passwords or PIN numbers. Be wary when answering calls pertaining to your bank or other institution - even if the number looks familiar. If you should receive a call/text and have a suspicion that it is a scam, Do NOT press any links / numbers or call back. NEVER give your personal details over the phone.

We recommend that you hang up and ring the number of the service in question by looking up the correct number from your own records to enquire if their staff was contacting you.

Also BE VERY AWARE of text messages from what looks like legitimate companies that you have just used, texting you to update your account. Always get in touch with the company/service first before you act!
